BACKGROUND:

Right To Play is a global organisation that protects, educates, and empowers children to rise above adversity using play. By harnessing play, one of the most powerful and fundamental forces in a child's life, we helped 2.3 million children last year to stay in school and out of work, to prevent life-threatening diseases like HIV and malaria and to stay safe from exploitation and abuse. We are the only global development organization focused exclusively on using play to transform the lives of children and youth impacted by poverty, war, disease and inequality.

Established in 2000, Right To Play reaches children through experiential programming in 15 countries in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and North America. These programs are supported by our headquarters in Toronto, Canada; London, UK and eight national offices across Europe (Germany, The Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, UK) and North America (Canada, US).

JOB SUMMARY:

Right To Play's People & Culture Team supports over 500 employees across our 23 locations (including Canada). We seek to hire a visible minority youth with an interest in Human Resources and the not-for-profit sector.

The People & Culture Summer Intern will collaborate with our Headquarter People and Culture team, located in Toronto, Canada and London, UK, to support the implementation and management of a variety of people processes. The intern will report to the Global Director, People & Culture, work closely with other HR specialists on the team, and will interact directly with employees as they support various P&C processes.

The People and Culture intern's work will contribute to ensuring the People and Culture processes and initiatives are rolled out in a consistent manner across all our locations, and employees and managers are well supported with the appropriate communications and tools.

In addition, the intern will contribute to special projects including the acquisition of an organization-wide 360 feedback tool, the roll-out of new policies, and the implementation of a wellness program.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Collaborate with the HQ People & Culture team to support employees and managers with various people related processes and procedures
 - Conduct research to support various People & Culture projects
 - Support the coordination of the roll-out of new policies, related training, and compliance tracking
 - Support the roll-out of the Summer Wellness Program, including scheduling and coordinating with vendors/service providers
